J. Geils anyone

Thinking of starting a J. Geils Band tribute. Saw them back in the day, they were one of the hottest, most-fun bands I have ever seen. I think it would be a blast to recreate that kind of party atmosphere again. I've got bass and harp covered, looking for a killer drummer, tasteful guitarist, Hammond B3 organ sound (gotta have that!), and someone with the chops and showmanship of Peter Wolf. Gotta own the stage!

So what do you think? Any takers? Done right, this will be a whole lot of!
