I have an almost 3 year old Rottweiler. She was imported from Europe which means she has a natural tail. She is perfect with kids and large dogs. Not sure about cats, and anything small like a rodent size is a no, just due to her prey drive.

House broke, extremely loving, the perfect family dog. This is an extremely expensive dog going for a very reasonable rehoming fee. Looking for the right family home willing to take care of her and let her live the rest of her days as your best friend. She is spayed and will come with her European registration papers, hip certification, elbow certification, and shot records. My loss is your gain.
