I am so excited to be able to announce this very special casting all.

I am looking for a woman around her 20s-40s to speak about the experience of having boudoir photos done for her partner or herself.

If you are comfortable working with a male photographer for your session and would like to be featured in this production then hit me up, buttercup!

In exchange for your participation you will receive a complimentary session and high resolution digital files from your session.

All you have to do is send a photo of yourself and let me know why a boudoir session would be perfect for you to my email
