Hi my name is Josh and Im looking for a keyboard player/pianist, drummer and a bass player to start a band with . Im 19 and have been playing guitar for 6 years and have been in a few start up bands and 1 serious band. Im looking for musicians 18-25. I have original material that has an alternative rock vibe though I play a bit of everything. We would start working on originals to get gigs asap. You dont have to be the best just know the basics. Not looking for pros who want to get paid just for responding to the ad! We would rehearse once or twice a week. A major plus if you have an electronic drum kit. If interested email or text me and leave a name, number, years of experience, instrument you play and age.
