Looking for a ghost writer to help put together an auto biography of a true crime lifetime. Due to my previous sins I am dying at an early age and wish to publish my story but need someone with a better grasp of words to help me do so. My story has been related to the film "Catch Me If You Can", and has lots of juicy details. I'm tempted to do it myself because of how easy it will probably be, but want to get a non biased opinion and outlook. I'm looking to publish online for a price and willing to split the proceeds or if a publisher picks it up I will also split that with the ghost writer. Email me with credentials, intentions, and.
