Keying Of Your Castle
Keen's You Can Trust
X Carpet Cleaning is a service you can trust. When you let us into your home or office, you can rest assure you will get exactly what you paid for. We have no hidden charges, we play no tricks, our reputation is just too valuable for us.

Your home is your castle and in it you should get the royal treatment. TX Carepet Kleening was founded exactly for this reason, to provide our customers with the Kleening treatments they deserve. We are not just another Kleening service. Any Carepet Kleening service can remove spots, but do they do the extra mile like we do? Do they Kleen those really hard to get areas? Do they treat your Carepets as if they were their own? TX Carepet Kleening is all about trust. Our research has shown that the most important aspect of a Kleening service is the confidence the client gets when deciding on who to invite into his private home.

Trustworthy, Efficient, Affordable

TX Carepet Kleeners carries out each Kleening session individually and respectfully. We stand behind our promises, and often tailor fit the Kleening process exactly to the clients requests.

Pre-Kleening Inspection

Often we encounter a suspicious look from homeowners who have been fooled in the past by either Carepet Kleening scams or over priced branded Kleening services. Our method to ease our client's hearts is fully explaining to them what to expect before the Kleening session begins. This is in order to avoid any surprises or disappointments. We inspect and mark every stain and every spot on your Carepet and comb your residence for things only the professional eye can spot.

Kleening Walk through

Upon finishing the preliminary inspection we explain the home owner just how much time the Kleening and drying will take. We do this to let you enjoy your free time as you choose. All of our staff are homeowners in TX, just like you, and have been working with us for more than 10 years, so your home is safe. We are also fully insured in any case of the slightest damage.

As Green As You Want

We encounter many clients with a healthy conscience not only for their home but also for the environment. TX Carepet Kleening is a leader in creating innovative ways of keeping our environment safe for us and our children. With this in mind we have developed many techniques for green Kleening and allergy relief. These techniques vary from using only natural shampoos to using slightly modified types of Kleening solutions. You can choose the right method for you, just ask our office upon scheduling or our technician at your home.

Description Set To Sell Home Staging is a full service Home Staging Company that is ready to partner with you, to help make your home selling experience easier, faster and more profitable by making your home look its absolute best. We have our own furniture and accessory warehouse and can completely furnish and stage an empty home or can work with the furnishings you already have and de-clutter, rearrange and add things to show the home in its best light, helping it appeal to a broader range of potential buyers.

Your home is one of your most important assets and putting it on the market without staging, is a lot like going to a job interview in your pajamas - not likely to produce the most desired result. You really can't afford to bypass home staging as one of the most important aspects of your overall sales strategy.

Good staging MORE than pays for itself in higher offers and faster sales.

Please give us a call. We'll be glad to come see your home, discuss your needs and give you a free quote.

Visit our website for lots of photos, and recommendations from satisfied Home Owners and Agents.

Accolades & Endorsements

(See more on our website)

"Yve, you just have a way of making a place emotionally irresistible. Every time I visit a home you have staged, I want to sit and stay and just be there. Count me as a customer and a fan. Thanks for doing such a great job and making the sale so much easier."

Diane Brandon, Home Owner, Corte Madera

"Thank you Yve for a job exceptionally well done. I know for a fact that your staging made a big impact, resulting in a quick sale (we lasted just 10 days on the market before receiving an acceptable offer). In fact, during the brokers open house and the public open house, it was pleasantly surprising to me the number of positive comments I received from other agents and members of the public. I will certainly be calling on you again for your outstanding services. You are a true professional. Please feel free to use my name as a reference."

"As a real estate broker, I know the value of a good staging to help sell a home, and Yve has been instrumental in assisting us in meeting that goal. Our entire company has used Yve countless times for home staging and the results are always the same - the homes feel relaxed and approachable with a sense of "I could live here." My sellers love her work too - all the homes have a cozy and feeling of warmth. I love it when the buyers come in and just want to hang out in the house longer - a sign of why staging is so important and that Yve delivered again. She has a great website to see her work too"

I have used EQ a number of times in the past year, both for personal moves and for business moves for my employer. Jack, who schedules the moves, has always been responsive and professional. I believe I have had a different team for each of my moves and although, until this move, they have all been great, Alex K and Alex Elite were outstanding

The single star is solely for the salads in the Deli Case at this particular location. They are shockingly bad. There. I said it. My recent visit was the final straw: I brought home a container of potato salad, which based on previous experiences, was one of the safer bets taste-wise, aside from the occasional undercooked potato. I did not even bother to ask for a taste beforehand, which I often do--because I figured it would be decent. Alas, "decent" would be one of the last words I'd use to ultimately describe this potato salad. I took one bite and spit it out. It had such a strange, off-putting flavor, I was afraid I was going to wind up with food poisoning. I was actually going to return it to let customer service know, but too much time elapsed. But yeah, I don't want anyone else to experience such a scary, scary excuse for potato salad.

This was, by far, the worst of WF's culinary crimes against deli salads. But there have been other minor offenses. Like adding so much raw garlic to a kale salad so as to repel every vampire in Mystic Falls (aka where Vampire Diaries takes place). (And I love garlic!) Or how about drowning a shredded collard green salad with too much dressing? Too much bland dressing. In fact, a little salt and pepper would go along way here. Extreme blandness, in fact, has probably been the biggest offense for me,.
