Got for sale a nice 2001 zr800 twin cylinder. The sled is nice and clean, has a nice track (studded) no cracks in the cowl. It has hand and thumb warmers, all the lights work etc. this is a very fast and powerful sled, not recommended for a timid or inexperienced rider. It dose however have a rip in the front of the seat, which is gorilla taped. It also has nice aftermarket mirrors, and comes with a spare belt. It has nice plastic skies, with double carbides that are like new. I'm pretty firm on the price, as it is probably the best deal on Craigslist for a zr800. sled is worth more than my asking price so if you want a $1500-$1600 sled, then you should buy a 600cc. May take trade for a nice, sport wheeler or 4X4 wheeler, or sport bike. I'm not interested in your row boats, or Nintendo, or livestock. Best way of contact is through text or call but leave a message.
