The lake has only frozen over a few times in the last 40 years. I have been considering walking with hopefully a group of people from the island area to Canada 30 miles one way. Article below is of a man who did it alone in the 70's . Let me know if you would be interested and we could start practice and preparation. I live near Edge water park and have walked along the shore this season and it gets only more difficult the more snow that is on the lake

look forward to hearing from you
