Independent, smart and sweet little boy, almost 2.5 years old, in Golden--right next to South Table Mountain Park--is looking for an engaging, fun-loving, and kindhearted nanny to care for him long-term (ideally for 2+ years). This social little guy loves to go on play dates, swimming, music class and more so a nanny who enjoys being out and about, and planning activities is a must have. Also a nanny who is organized, thoughtful, consistent and reliable is a must. His professional parents, both who work outside of the home, need a nanny ASAP who can be available Monday through Friday, approximately 7 a.m. to 5 p.m.. The schedule will change slightly in the fall when their son goes to pre-school two mornings per week school 7:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.) but the family will guarantee 40 hours per week. In addition, as mom is a school administrator they will not need a nanny 9 weeks out of the year: 5 weeks off in late June/July, 2 weeks over Christmas break, and another week over Spring Break. They can offer 2 of the 9 weeks as paid time off. This is an ideal job for a nanny who loves to travel, has children of her own and would like to spend time with them during the summer and holiday breaks, or just a nanny who has other hobbies they'd like pursue a few weeks per year.

ALL candidates must meet all minimum requirements:

- 2 years of direct child care experience outside of family that can be verified with references (nanny experience, daycare experience, teaching experience etc.) Must be more extensive than babysitting
- 18 years old and HS graduate
- Have reliable car
- Minimum 1 year commitment to a family and their schedule.

Please do not apply if you do not meet all qualifications. If you do meet all qualifications, please do not reply back via email. If you are interested download an application at our website at (www.abcnannies.com) and send it back filled out (hand written) via email or.
