alright so i'm really just doing this on a whim. I'm 18 and i'm play drums/guitar/sing and i'm looking to maybe jam with some fellow musicians who might be interested in starting a punk/shoegaze band.

not to seem like i want this to necessarily sound like another band, but i wanna have a shoegaze/dreampop/punk/whatever sound that blends a punk driving sound like sonic youth and and a soft, dreamy shoegaze sound like whirr, nothing, my bloody valentine, slowdive, you name it.

truthfully, i just wanna jam with other musicians who really care about making music that actually sounds good. i know that's a lot of genres up there, but im open to playing almost anything. i'm a much better drummer than i am guitarist/vocalist, but I certainly am up for any challenge of guitar or singing. so if you're a drummer, i'll give guitar a shot (i'm certainly not a trashy guitarist)

i've got amps, guitars, drums, and vocal equipment all at my house so we have a place to jam as well as appropriate resources. but by all means, bring your own gear if you have it. interested in jamming? text me, email me, whatever. lets write some good.
