I am getting started with a new business and have built a basic Website using SquareSpace. I would need help in a few areas.

1) I would like to set up integration with Planyo.

<https://www.planyo.com/>

This is the only scheduling solution that can handle both daily appointments and longer stays. Future applications will be for booking workshops and popup dinners. My business is a Boutique retreat center and I also offer Ayurvedic Health Assessments that are one time or a package of services.

I truly need to be working on content for the site as well as doing the daily work of Assessments etc. I am looking to work with someone to provide this back end assistance.

2) The Marqui template is limited in some ways. I would like to have a transparent popup perhaps to move across the pages promoting signups to Newsletters and or to promote special event signups. The newsletter signup is currently at the bottom.

Are these things you could perhaps help me?
