Kitty was adopted from a shelter and then I took her from a friend that was moving out of state. I've just been accepted to a grad program in Spain for the following year and would prefer to rehome her asap so she can finally settle in to a permanent home.

Kitty needs a playmate. She is not a lazy house cat and enjoys play sessions with her toys a couple times a day. She likes to wander and do her own thing but in the evenings she wants to cuddle on your lap. She might be one of those cats that even loves being taken outside on a leash. I haven't tested it yet but she's very adventurous.

She is good with homes that have respectful dogs and other cats. She is spayed, claws in tact, litter box trained and comes with the box, some food, a scratching post and several toys.

I'm not trying to make a profit off her so she is free to serious inquiries.
