There is just something special about this property in Dallas that just makes us happy. It starts with the location in prestigious Lakewood -- a bona fide neighborhood that's filled with lovely historic homes, towering trees and sprawling lawns but just 10 minutes to downtown. Off the beaten path -- the best places usually are -- yet marvelously connected. Really, though, we're loving all the upgrades happening at this iconic Dallas rental apartment community. Let's start with the renovated apartments and the complete and total reimagining of, well, just about everything. The new kitchens are dreamy, complete with granite, and tile. That, along with new floors, custom cabinets, lighting and fixtures puts this property on par with apartments that cost hundreds more.
