Our warm and comfortable 2 story 3 bedroom/2 bathroom renovated home is located in beautiful El Granada on a quiet dead end street and can accommodate 6 guests.

We are just north of Historic Half Moon Bay, and only a 30-minute drive to San Francisco along a spectacular coastline.

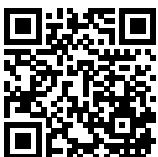

Downstairs:

Our fully equipped kitchen boasts top of the range appliances (my wife is a professional chef) and concrete countertops with bar seating. The open plan dining area has a beautiful wooden country style table that seats up to 12 people. Reclaimed redwood wainscoting adds warmth and charm to the space.

A bedroom with queen size bed is also downstairs, along with a full bathroom.

For musicians, there is a tuned piano to enjoy.

A new washer and dryer is available for your use in the garage.

Spacious living room offers lots of seating for the day or night. Comfortable sofa, coffee table, 50" flat screen TV with built in DVD player, wireless internet, and working fireplace. We have partial ocean views from our west facing windows, where the Point harbor, headland and Pacific Ocean are visible. A day bed is also adjacent to these windows and serves as the perfect place to take an afternoon nap.

The master bedroom has queen size bed and a sliding glass door that opens onto a deck, with views of the harbor in the distance.

The second bedroom has full size bed.

There is another full bathroom on the second level.

Our front yard has a grass lawn that receives ample sunshine during the day.

In the backyard, we have a large deck, BBQ Grill, a safe trampoline if you have children, and a landscaped area with various native plants.

We strongly believe you will find our home to be comfortable, cozy, and convenient, whether you are here visiting and exploring the San Francisco Bay Area and surrounding coast or using this as a base camp while you work anywhere in San Francisco or the
