Hi I'm looking for a little female chihuahua Or possibly male if he's fixed. One that's around a year or two old. I rescued a little tea cup chihuahua not quite a year ago. I've never had chihuahua's before. I really bonded with her and she's my little best friend now. I love all dogs and I'm glad I rescued her. But I can't leave her for a minute. If I go to the store even for an hour she just cries until I get back. I work from home so I don't really leave her alone that often but after having a conversation with a breeder of Chihuahua's I found out they are the type of breed to get in pairs or threes. So they have a friend to play with and bond to beyond their owner especially when they're not able to be home. So that's basically it- I'm looking for a new addition and playmate for my chihuahua. I prefer to rescue one and provide a good home for it. I am fine paying a SMALL rehousing or adoption fee as long as it's reasonable. I would love to meet the owner so they feel comfortable to know the dog is going to a good home. Would prefer if you could travel

Here's a pic of my chihuahua attached. Would love to have.
