We are a moving company out of Oklahoma and will be unloading a 24ft Budget truck in the morning. We do have a safe that weighs 1,300lbs and therefore needing someone with a liftgate just to lower it to ground level. I am willing to pay for your gas and time since it's a 105 miles. I know it's in Marion,IL but trying to find someone in that area is hard to do. Let me know what you would think would be a fair price and I can pay a little extra if you want to stay and help unload the truck. The safe itself should only take 20-30 mins to get off. Text me at
