Craigslist seems to generate a lot of spam, so let me start by weeding that out. If you are interested in this opportunity, be sure to put "very personal assistant" in the subject line. If you don't do that I'm going to assume that either you are not real, or that you have difficulty following basic instructions. . . either of which would make me difficult to justify hiring you. ;)

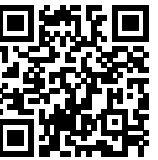

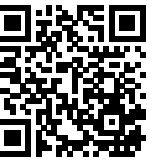

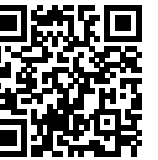

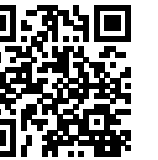

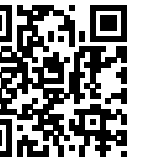

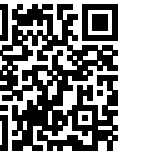

I am starting a new company and I need to find a personal assistant that wants to help me develop and grow my business. I am also hoping to find a playful and flirtatious girl that would enjoy having fun while we work together. I'm serious about finding the right girl to help me grow my company, but if I can find the right combination of professional ambition and personal playfulness then I figure that will be win-win for both of us.

Ultimately, I am looking for a fun, sexy, playful girl that loves the idea of keeping the Boss happy. I want this to be mutually rewarding and mutually beneficial for both of us. But I also want you to be the type of girl that gets off on the idea of giving pleasure and knowing how much your Boss is looking forward to enjoying you.

If you are interested, tell me more about yourself, what interests you about the job, why you are interested in being a personal assistant for an entrepreneur, and what you hope to get from this arrangement. Also, tell me what experience you have and why you think I should choose you.

I don't mind training the right girl for the job. In fact, training you could be part of the fun. . . This is a real offer and the job is real. My business must come first, but I am hoping to find the perfect girl that would really love and enjoy this opportunity.

Again, put "very personal assistant" in the subject line so I know you are.
