Daisy is a 5 year old spayed female in need of a very loving home due to her owner getting displaced by the airlines to NYC. Daisy needs to be with her owner all the time meaning on their lap and sleeps with them. She loves to burrow herself under the blankets in bed and also when on your lap. She will snuggle with you by putting her head right under your chin. Daisy is unique in what the vet describes as having a shy bladder where when she gets over excited she will piddle usually when she meets new people. Daisy uses the doggy door to go to the bathroom outside. Daisy would do best with someone that needs as much love as Daisy has to.
