Angel is a very affectionate DSH cat who needs a home due to her owner being displaced by the airlines to NYC. Angel is spayed and both litter trained and uses the doggy door to use the bathroom outside but comes right back inside as she is an indoor cat. She loves to be pet and will use her paw to get your hand to keep you petting if shes not done yet. She is used to being around dogs but would I'm sure also love a home where she is the center of.
