Sure you could use your tax refund and buy a big TV. You can sit around and watch life go by with the brightest screen on the market or. . . you could use your refund to invest in yourself. Consider investing in a new career in real estate investing. Not only a career, but a lifestyle and life changer. You will need education/training and resources to get started. We have education/training and resources. . .

You must be able to attend our online school. We need everyone to have a measurable foundation in order to thrive. Our Real Estate Investing Education program is unmatched in the industry. It is based on the scientifically proven learning methodology, Instructional Systems Design. Consulting a PhD in Education and working with subject matter experts in specific disciplines of real estate investing, we developed well-structured instructional materials using objectives, related teaching strategies, systematic feedback and evaluation. We ensure our students acquire the skills and knowledge they need to become successful real estate investors with an emphasis on earning profits, generating passive income and creating wealth.

You will also need resources. We have resources. After you have successfully completed the courses, we have resources to help you do your own real estate investing. Proprietary funding for property acquisition and or renovation expenses for your personal portfolio are available. We have solid relationships with hedge funds and institutional buyers ready to back and buy your deals. There is a national online platform to promote properties for sale or rent. You will have ongoing assistance from our local and national network of seasoned investors and industry pros. There is also weekly coaching and study group sessions.

Respond with your name, email address and phone number for more information and to start the process.
