YOU ARE THE PROBLEM WITH AMERICA. You are the poster child for the 2015 Democrat Party, the same hateful bigots the nation dealt with 50 years ago as we tried to move past segregation and separate but equal. You are the ignorant spawn of the violent radicals who robbed, bombed, and declared war on America, and have a direct link to Obama. You are the entitled who we must drag kicking and screaming through life because nothing is your fault and being American means you're owed a lifestyle.

The core of the Democrat Party hasn't changed, the low IQ and gullible. The rest of the world has moved on, you revel in your hate and ignorance because it requires no effort on your part, only the shrill shrieking of a 2 time Obama supporter repeating the distorted "facts" which make them feel good at the end of the day.
