I am looking for any kind of aquarium equipment.. Most importantly a cover for a 55 gallon tank but also gravel,filter,heater ect.I will even take any fish you are trying to get rid of as long as they will get along with my other little wet pets :) ... I am looking for free stuff but willing to pay if the price is reasonable (pet stores charge waayy to much) and I am trying to do this on a budget lol. So if you are looking to get rid of your tank or any equipment please contact me I will pick up pretty much anywhere in CT and I promise all your stuff will be going to a good home!! Me and my boyfriend are really into the hobby and looking to set up a few new tanks!!
