NEEDS

- oil sender unit for oil pressure gauge (gauge freaks out sometimes, common problem with the gauge sender) (just need to order gauge from prosport.com, $40) (easy to swap over)
- windshield has crack and back bumper got scraped but not dented(Price dropped 500$ to compensate)

Any other questions or concerns just let me know, just trying to tell you everything about the car that I can. you can look up some of the parts installed on the car and see the prices of them to see how much time and money went into the car. $8,000 or best offer. Car has over $10,000 in.
