Hello, I have a few bearded dragons up for adoption the first is almost 4 year old male standard scale bearded dragon proven breeder the adoption fee is 70. I also have 2 male bearded dragon just under a year old and eat like pigs.one is a leatherback male hypo he is 65 and the other 1 is a rainbow tiger standard the adoption fee is 40. I also have some baby standard and leather backs, male and females that are 7 weeks old the adoption fee is 50 and 60.

All my dragons are eating greens(kale, mustard greens, endive, green beans, berries ect.) for bugs they are used to crickets, dubia roaches, wax worms, horn worms, silk worms. the older dragons can eat super worms. The P.B likes to eat a mouse from time to time or a hand/tong feed gold fish.

For geckos i got a trans/hypo tangerine leopared gecko male under a yr old and the adoption fee is 30. 2 crested geckos that are proven breeders the male is 2yrs old and is a yellow dalmation, and the female is 3yrs old and is a tiger. the male is $60 and the female is $70. or take both for 120. I also have a female gargoyle gecko about 6 months old for $50. All my geckos are eating well and are hand tame.

I have 1 wood turtle for $75 she is hand tame and eats veggies and fruit.
