About Me I would love to take care of your furbaby while you are out of town. My two very well socialized dogs and I live in a small house in the woods with lots of land and we love visitors! I started by watching my friends dogs and found myself sharing lots of dog training advice as I have self-studied dog behavior for about 7 years (specifically aggression). With that said, my pack and I more than welcome dogs with special cases including aggression, as long as I have no other guest dogs booked. The property I live on will allow me to house and care for almost any exotic pet. Unfortunately, I also have experience monitoring medicine and giving fluids as I had to give I.V. at home to my dogs when they were puppies. I'm currently working only a few nights a week so I will be home all day playing outside with the dogs and I will send you daily updates of them enjoying their vacation as well! Your pet will feel like part of the family here, he/she is even invited to sleep in the bed (depending on the species hehe). For the safety of my pets your dog/s must be up to date on shots and have no contagious sickness. Hope to hear from you soon! About this sitter: Animal lover and packleader for life Why I love dog sitting I've been an animal lover my entire life. However I realized how interested I am in dog psychology about 7 years ago when I started studying dog behavior in order to rehabilitate my dog aggressive dog. Caesar Millan's pack leader techniques worked best for him and he turned into the most obedient soldier I've met. Unfortunately he is no longer here on earth but his legacy lives on through every dog I help with the knowledge I gained from Bongo. Meet my pets I have two very friendly and playful dogs, Moto and Fila. They are 2 year old great pyrenees and they love other dogs. But my dog is a pack leader and I have a fenced in property with a lot of land. I have a large dog house so I let them play off leash. They walk on a leash with a dog harness. I also have access to some dog training classes in my neighborhood. My experience is in monitoring medicine and giving fluids at home to my dogs when they were puppies. About my services My rate is $28 per night with someone new as this was the first time we had left him with anyone except family. Amanda sent us lots of pictures of Barney during the week which helped put our mind at ease that he was happy and being taken care of. From the pictures and videos it looked like he was having a great time. She responded to my texts right away. I was happy to find someone I felt comfortable leaving Barney with and will definitely use Amanda again. " --Linda P. ????? "Our dog Rigby had an awesome stay with Amanda. She sent us pictures and video of him playing with her dogs and he enjoyed her fenced in play area. He is high energy and she took good care of him. Already lined her up for another stay . I would highly recommend her services. Thanks Sandy " --David M. To read more of my customer reviews, visit <http://localdogstays.com/sit/packleader4life/c>
