Established original Pop/Rock band seeking new guitar player. Ladies and gentlemen both welcome. Our bass player describes us as "trying to play Motley Crue solos on top of pop songs." If you are a fan of artists like Weezer, Rick Springfield, Cheap Trick, Thin Lizzy, The Cars, The Ramones, The Beach Boys and Taylor Swift you'll probably fit right in.

We practice every Sunday in the Philadelphia area (occasionally in Wilmington, DE) and have been averaging about 2 shows a month. We have all done the full-time touring band thing and the number one rule of this band is that it has to be relaxed and FUN. Keeping it to local-ish (greater Philly area) shows and the occasional northeast weekend jaunt (NYC, Boston, etc.)

Our guitar player is leaving us in the near future and we are looking to fill his spot. You would be playing a mix of rhythm and lead stuff but no writing is necessary if that isn't your strong suit. Must have gear, a rad attitude, no hangups and good vibes. Also, if you can play super tight consistently that is sort of important. If you are over 21 and under 40, even better. If you can sing harmonies, play keys, book shows or have a more centrally located practice space you are a champion. Let us know any other relevant info in your e-mail.

No drugs, please. We would also prefer someone who is not already committed to another band as that can make scheduling things a hassle.

Hit us up if you have any interest and we'd be happy to answer questions and provide links to some music for you to check out.!
