The room was clean and the bed was good. The kitchen, living room, and the bathroom was in good shape. It is just two blocks from the bus station (bus to the ski resorts) and it is located in downtown Salt Lake City. It was easy to find by car, just a few blocks from the interstate. Arthur the owner was very friendly and helpful. You could ask him about everything and he helped me. I will strongly recommend the place because of the location, good standard and it is inexpensive.

recommend it to anyone who needs a place to stay and can't afford staying in a motel or anyone who is traveling through. The staff is very kind and courteous and it's great that there is a kitchen because we got to cook homemade meals away from home.
