Hello I have a beautiful pure bred female German Shepard that I need to find a home for. She is great with kids and other dogs. She gets along with all of my neighbors except for one and that is why I would like to find a new home. Because my neighbor dis likes her I have to keep her inside for 10 hours a day and that is just not fair to any dog. She need a loving home and a place where she can run and release energy. I will interview all that are interested but be prepared that some will get denied. Thank
