I am selling a Ridgeway Grandfather Clock. It is in excellent working condition and looks beautiful. It is the YORK model (#2190). The clock is no longer listed/manufactured on the Ridgeway site. It has three changeable chimes and weights are finished in 24k gold. An absolutely wonderful clock.

The following information on this particular clock was pulled from the internet:

- Chicory Oak finish on oak solids, oak and White Ash burl veneers
- Triple chime cable movement plays Westminster, Whittington and St Michael's chimes, with separate hour strike.
- Automatic night shut-off
- 300 mm round dial has a white porcelain finish with black Roman numerals
- Brass bezel
- Weight shells are pewter finished with 24k gold wash bands
- Remote second hand
- Pendulum is a unique lyre dual vial faux mercury type within a brass circle.

Cabinet:

Federal pediment style has a white ash burl framed with ebony and maple veneers
 The solid hardwood carved design between the pediment and columns wraps around to each side of the clock

The oak and ebony finished turned columns are capped at the top and bottom with antiqued cast brass finials
 The clock is framed with a mirrored beveled glass door
 The interior are beveled glass as well
 The clock has access to a large glass illuminated case
 The break front base has 3 pieces of matching white ash burl, framed with ebony and maple woods
 To complement the pediment
 Made by American craftsmen in Virginia

This clock is available for pick up only in the San Dimas / Southern California region. This clock's original price was nearly $7,000.00. I am offering this for sale at a very good liquidation price, but will consider any reasonable.
