If you have such a problem with this person CALL THE POLICE. Is what she is doing illegal? If not either put up or shut up. It's getting old. Who cares is she makes money on those pets. She has to feed them vet them and maybe even retrain them. Just because the owner of those animals did not want a fee then so be it. There is absolutely nothing wrong with living in a trailer. It's better than the street. You have nerve and seem to be a bigot. I have seen some very nice trailers. I suppose you live in an ivory tower with unicorns and.
