I am looking for a 2 bedroom apt for my boyfriend, daughter and i. My boyfriend and I are both in the medical field and my daughter works f/t as well. Right now we are all in seperate places so we have not been able to save much money. We are trying to find a place together finally to save money. We are all drug free and don't drink. The security deposit is what is going to be tough to come up with. We are either willing to work it off or pay extra monthly. My bf and i love to do yard work and take a lot of pride in our places to keep everything looking great. I hope to hear from someone.
