Tired of "photographers" with no samples of their work and promises of big paydays?

Well, here's something different.

Lots of examples and NO pay!

And... you don't need to send me your pic or meet me someplace sketchy.

Initial meeting at a public place of your choice, and yes, by all means, bring a friend.

I shoot fine art figures, and create photo-realistic fantasy collages.

Primarily shooting nude figures, I allow for model anonymity when requested as many of my models are converted into non-human creatures.

I do not have a budget for paying models at this point, but offer trade-for-disc of all pictures shot, as well as completed work. And/or, if there are shots you need, that will be included in the trade.

I can provide references on request from models I have worked with.

I am professional, respectful, easy to work with, and serious about my art.

Any examples shown here with the model's face included are with permission.

If interested, get in touch. I answer all responses, so if you don't hear back, it's a Craigslist glitch, try again.

Unfortunately, Craigslist divides the country up in weird ways, so please note my location in Northfield MA.
