Are you thinking about building a new home, shop, garage, or room addition? Do you have plans to take you existing land and divide it so that you can sell and/or developing it? Maybe you are thinking about drilling a new well, installing a septic system or reroofing your home. . . All of these projects require plans, engineering, calculations, and detailed plot maps before you even start the permit process.

We know firsthand all the headaches and hassles involved in finding the right designer, engineer firm, and especially the stress and aggravation of going through the permitting process. That is why when we formed this company our first goal was to eliminate all of those headaches by offering all of those services in one company. With over 30 years of experience in all areas of construction and land development, we are certain that will be able to provide you excellent service at a very reasonable price.

We can all take care of all the design and engineering requirements including Structural, Civil, Environmental and Geotechnical engineering. We work closely with several licensed builders in both Oregon and Washington. Here are just a few of types of projects work on and permit...
