I have a female cane corso pure bread she's 1yr old 95lbs. We are looking for a good home for her with plenty of room to run and play. She is house broken an crate trained. She needs lots of attention so if you're a busy person this isn't the dog for you. She loves to play ball an go for walks. She is an inside dog only used to being outside a few hours a day. She doesn't like cats. She's used to being an only dog so don't know how she will act around other dogs. She's a sweet protective girl that just wants to cuddle an be loved on all the time. Must have big yard and have her be an inside dog. No apartments! Looking for the best loving home possible for her. Rehoming fee of .
