I am a 35yo army combat veteran and can prove it. I have a family, and our new house has a huge yard. My little push mower struggled to mow the yard and just died. I have a low paying job and cant buy another or a bigger mower like we need. I have documents to prove i am a veteran and what my disabilities are. i will do anything u want. Within reason. I dont want to be in trouble with the city for not mowing. Any contribution would be appreciated, or the opportunity to pay you back for one that can handle my yard. Will you help?
