Very divisible over liberty....and justice.....for ALL. Someone has to be first. On the moon, and the first to lay them all down. Someone has to be the one who put the gun down first and walk away. From the time the first gun was fired we have all been under armed guard and inventing weapons out of fear. That's not to say tools of ignorance like automatic weapons aren't necessary in certain situations. A cat is stuck in a tree, a cat won't stop whining, a cat...well you get it. We as human beings must start asking ourselves the big question....are we evolving into God drawn beings, all embracing. Or are we using every tool of ignorance on earth not to be. Policy debates are fun, but what would happen the day boards like these fill with real brilliant solutions. Ones that our leaders use to make change, instead of sounding like the parakeet section of Petco. The few good ideas I've ever read here came from a woman on the right. Here's a no brainer, or as we say "an idea you only have to explain twice to a Goper," GOP, try putting your smart women in town halls screaming enough gun violence! Run intelligent candidates who aren't out for 2% or 47. Oh, and don't forget our Amigos, they're dropping anchors all over the....
