I'm looking to be someones long-term permanent babysitter. I really don't have a rate, its what you can afford and fair. I perfer my home but I will consider going to your home, if I go to your home I can do some light house hold duties and I can also cook dinner lol if its not my mom cooking in my home its me. Also I'll give you a little more information about myself........ I'm a high school student with tons of experience with children from ages 0 months to 10 years of age. My babysitting services started in the family then progressed to outside of the family. I love kids. I love teching them new things, making them laugh and smile. I'm a very responsible, reliable, trustworthy, and sweet person. Even though I'm in high school that will not interfere with this responsibility, I'm very mature for this job and been doing it for 4 years now. If you want to know more about my services please email, call, or text me. Looking forward to hearing from you and thanks for taking the time to read my ad. Thanks
