In business since 2002 Home Project Partners (HPP), a FREE-to-use Maine-based contractor referral service, has successfully helped hundreds of Maine homeowners find the "right" contractor for their home projects. No matter the size of the project HPP can help you find the best contractor for your project and help make your project a stress-free experience.

We want your project to be a success no matter who you hire.

Having a home project and not knowing who to call can be frustrating...and you don't want to hire just anyone. We deal with some of the areas best contractors on a daily basis -- and, best of all, we stay with you throughout your project to ensure its success.

"Home Project Partners makes it so simple. Thanks to their quick response, I didn't have to waste time leafing through the yellow pages, leaving voicemails (which inevitably go unanswered) and checking references. They take the sting out of the process." Dan Z, Gray ME

"This is an invaluable service. Everyone should use it. Paul's professionalism and advice allowed me to complete three projects this past summer, ALL within budget! I'd never tackle another home repair project without Home Project Partners." Debby W, Scarborough.
