Looking for someone able to clean out a property I recently purchased. Home has furniture, appliances, and misc. personal belongings in it that need to be removed. I will have a roll off dumpster on site, and there are no stairs to deal with. Easy job, just be able to lift heavy objects. I will be there to help with some of the heavier items. This offer is for one day- from morning until all items are removed, but if you are a hard worker, and have some general construction knowledge, or are willing to learn, I will be able to use you more. If you have a truck, you are more than welcome to keep appliances and any other scrap metals (including a large access ramp) to scrap for yourself. Paying $60 for the job, will be buying lunch as well. Prefer if you have your own transportation, but I am willing to pick you up within 20 minutes of the job. Should be Saturday the 20th or Sunday the 21st. Please email me your contact info if you are interested.!
