My cat I rescued had kittens and unfortunately died shortly after giving birth so I had to hand raise everyone.. Every kitten was bottle fed therefor they are all very sweet and cuddly. They're are 8 in total and each ones personality is different from the next! :) Every one of these babies come with they're 1st Shot, deworming, and flea treatment already done & I have records for everything. They are now 8 weeks old and ready for new homes. Every one of them have been 100% litter trained since they were 4 weeks old, all went to the vet last week and got a clean bill of health. Each kitten will also come with a small bag of they're food and a toy. I am asking a rehoming fee For each and I will be asking a lot of questions to ensure each kitten will be going to the best homes only! They're are 2 short hair(almost entirely black) black boys, 1 medium hair black with white on toes/chest boy, 1 short hair black and white boy, 1 long hair calico(lots of black w/ a little orange) girl, 1 short hair calico(lots of white/orange) girl, 1 short hair Brown tabby boy and 1 short hair Brown tabby w/ orange blended into his face/body. All of them were raised around my other cats, dogs, and toddler so they're used to practically anything! :)

If you are interested in any of my babies please email me with this info please; your name, a brief bio, I want to know if you have any other pets, do your live in an apartment and have you had this kitten ok'd if so, have you ever had a cat, and do you plan on having them indoor or outdoor??? And do you plan on neutering or spaying? Thanks for your.
