One look and it's easy to see why Brazilian Koa is often called Tigerwood. Its distinctive orange coloring and brown/black striping make it one of the most unique and exotic species available on the market today. And its durability is simply outstanding, resulting in a "not-so-everyday" floor that will stand up year after year to life's everyday demands.

What is "Odd Lot"?

Select Grade flooring that did not pass the final step of the manufacturers inspection. Flooring is passes along at up to 75% off!

Quick Highlights:

- Select Grade

- 5" wide boards
 - 3/4" thick
 - No glue installation
 - No sanding or staining?
 - 100% natural material, each board will vary in color, grain, and price. Sold with a firm that is truly a unique work of art.
