I am looking for a person to help framing apartment in-law in Burlingame.

The apartment includes raised floor, small kitchen area, bathroom, hallway, walking closet and bedroom.

I will pay $25 - $35/hour depending on experience with framing. I am also open to the fixed bid arrangements.

You should have your own compressor and power tools.

You should know the building codes and be able to communicate in English

When replying, specify your availability and experience with framing and other skills you may have, please.

You can start working as early as next!
