ASKING-$899

This handsome turn of the century mantle was sold by us just a few years ago. The nice lady used as a faux mantle in her apartment and now owns a house with plenty of mantles so it's back to use for consignment. It has lots of unique character to it with its dark walnut stain and the minimal carvings. Definitely a transition piece that's leaving the Victorian era but yet not quite all the way Edwardian. This is ready to use and not so heavy that two average size people can carry it in a mini van or SUV.
