Sadly I am giving away this beautiful cat because I work so many hours I no longer have time to take care of her. She is 1.5 years old and spayed. She is very friendly, cuddly, playful and loves to be around people at all times. She eventually warms up to other cats after a couple of days and is good with children. She requires lots of love, care and attention. Also she doesn't like her litter box to be filthy or she wont use it. I will include a cat carrier to whomever is seriously interested in adopting her.

Please ONLY text or email if interested in caring for an animal that you can provide a safe and healthy environment for and that you will take care of.

No adoption.
