We are looking to find a new home for our dog Sylas. He is 4 year old male and he is medium size and an Australian Kelpie mix breed. He is an active dog and loves attention and will play all day if you let him. We both work full time and kids and have a new baby on the way and have less and less time for him. We are hoping to find someone who has time to spend with him and lots of room to run preferably. He really is a great dog and this is a hard decision for us. I am asking a rehoming fee of $20 to the lucky person or family that takes.
