I am a widowed 37 year old professional living in Tacoma. I have a new position that requires occasional travel. I have a sister who is helping me care for my 4 year old daughter but she is moving away next month. I have no other family in the area and looking either for a full time live in nanny to care for my daughter and my home. I need someone reliable, caring, and no criminal record. Must be willing to submit to a background check. I need someone reliable, trustworthy, loving, and can be "motherly" toward my daughter. You must have car or at least a valid drivers license. We can work out the compensation along with free lodging and meals of course. Please send a brief summary of your experience and why you feel you would be the person I should selection along with recent picture so I can associate a face with the name. I have provided a picture of myself and my.
