I'm Anthony, I am 27 and Sum 41 is my favorite band with Green Day as a close second. Looking for others who share the same interest in these groups to start a Sum 41/Green day tribute band. Have drummer and I play rhythm guitar, could possibly sing. Looking for everything else. Looking for people who can practice at least once a week, and able to play shows semi-frequently. This is a semi-serious project with hopes of turning into a regular gig. Get at me if interested, let's get this!
