Location Nevada

I'm looking to rent an office and build a green screen studio but won't need the whole unit to myself. I'm looking for another cameraman / editor to share the space with. I may also be able to send work your way and vice versa.

The unit I'm interested in has 3 offices and a large area for a conference room and/or green screen studio.

You would have your own office.

The Office space I'm looking at is centrally located in Las Vegas off of Spring Mountain and Valley View (near Dessert Inn too).

The office will only be $385
