Meet Sarah: Sarah is a twenty something model who is interested in doing more work. She has done fashion, catalog, and some other great work. She is looking to add more artistic, lingerie, glamour work to her portfolio. She has answered some ads on CR but some of the guys don't seem like they are really legit.

Meet Mark: Mark is a young but talented photographer. He has been working for a photo studio doing family portraits, senior pictures. And he is really good at it. Mark is trying to expand his portfolio to get into the world of high fashion and men's interests magazines like FHM, Maxim that sort of thing. He even has some interest from a national magazine but they want him to send some photos with an actual model.

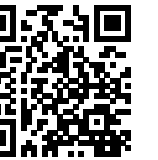

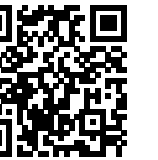

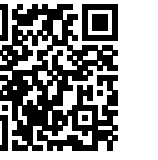

That's where we come in. We have been in the same boat as Mark and talked to models with the same experiences as Sarah. So we created the LIST. An easier to use meeting place for models and photographers. Models are personally interviewed, recent and realistic photos are taken, age is verified. Photographers/videographers must have some proof of actually being what they say they are. College credit, professional portfolio, jobs and at least one recommendation from a model.
