Hi social media guru's,

My business consulting company is launching an online business course in August. We have a social media plan but need help with execution. Looking for someone local, who is passionate about business and social media. Only candidates with provable experience should apply.

We are a group of friendly, knowledgeable and experienced consultants. You will learn a lot and have fun!

Start date: End of July

Pay: $10 per hour (approximately 12 hours per week. Can discuss this more).

Credit: We'd love to help you sign up with your school to get elective credits for this project.

Duration: 3 month commitment with a discussion of extension after 3 months.

Please email your resume, social media links and any other information that shows your experience with social media.

If we like what we see, we will reach out to you for an initial phone interview.

Thanks!
